

On determining an absorption coefficient and a speed of sound in the wave equation by the boundary control method

Leonid Pestov (Immanuel Kant Baltic Federal University Königsberg/Kaliningrad)

We consider the inverse multidimensional problem for the wave equation with unknown variable speed and absorption. A linear procedure based on the boundary control method for determining both coefficients is proposed.